General instructions

Return address:

The enclosed envelope, which requires no postage stamp, may be used for returning the form. The extra copy of the form is for your records.

Definitions:

- (a) Assets administered on behalf of others should consist of assets of a trust nature only, which are administered by the reporting institution either solely or jointly with some other person or institution, and should include cash and other assets which are being administered in capacities such as the following: Administrator of estates of deceased persons; curator of estates of persons of feeble mind and other persons; trustee under marriage and any other trust settlements; trustee of insolvent estates, of charitable, educational and philanthropic trusts; guardian or tutor of minors; liquidators of companies but not judicial managers; and administrator under deed of assumption in favour of the reporting institution. Data should, however, exclude assets handled by the reporting institution in a capacity as executor of estates of deceased persons.
- (b) Funds (not of a trust nature) invested or to be invested on behalf of other parties should be excluded from this return.

Queries

Queries should be addressed to: Financial Markets Division, Research Department, South African Reserve Bank, PO Box 7433, Pretoria, 0001; telephone no (012) 313-3407 or (012) 313-3219; fax (012) 313-4013.

General instructions:

- (a) The information should cover the Republic of South Africa.
- (b) The "Jointly" column should only include assets administered jointly with banks (as defined in the Banks Act, 1990), other trust companies and boards of executors, and the "Solely" column should include all assets administered either solely or jointly with private individuals or corporate bodies which are not subject to the Banks Act.
- (c) Bills should be shown at face value (item 11) and current income and expenditure items which will eventually appear as credits and debits to profit and loss account should be included on a net basis in item 4.
