

Prudential Communication 3 of 2026

Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017 (Act No. 9 of 2017)

Prudential Authority Fees Determination, 2026

Objective of this Prudential Communication

This communication serves to inform all interested persons and financial institutions regulated and supervised by the Prudential Authority (PA) of the making of the PA Fees Determination in terms of Chapter 16 of the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017 (Act No. 9 of 2017) (FSR Act)

1. Application

- 1.1 This Prudential Communication is applicable to all interested persons and financial institutions regulated and supervised by the PA.

2. Introduction

- 2.1 Section 237(1) of the FSR Act provides for fees to be charged by the PA to fund the performance of specific functions under the FSR Act and the relevant financial sector laws. In this regard, this PA Fees Determination sets out the fees payable to the PA in respect of the functions performed by the PA as well as relevant information related to the payment of fees.
- 2.2 The PA consulted the industry on the draft PA Fees Determination and no material comments were received. The draft PA Fees Determination was tabled in Parliament together with the PA's budget package on 6 December 2024 and served the 30-day statutory period. No comments were received.

3. Purpose

- 3.1 The purpose of this Prudential Communication is to inform all interested persons and financial institutions regulated and supervised by the PA of the publication of the PA Fees Determination and its coming into effect on 1 April 2026. This will result in the repeal of the PA Fee Determination, 2025 that was effective from 1 February 2025.

4. Enquiries

- 4.1 Any enquiries regarding this communication must be directed to the relevant frontline supervisors.
